

JUNGIAN ENCOUNTER WITH THE WOUNDED SOUL OF INDIA
Co-sponsored by the C.G. Jung Foundation of New York and
C.J. Jung Institute of Chicago
Guest Faculty – Ashok Bedi M.D., Jungian Psychoanalyst
February 24 - March 7, 2024

The C.G. Jung Foundation of New York and C.G. Jung Institute of Chicago are proud to co-sponsor the 17th educational tour of India in February/March 2024. This trip is an opportunity to see India through the lens of analytical psychology. Join us in this Jungian passage to the dream like, archetypal landscape of India including Delhi, Dharamshala, Amritsar (Golden Temple and Partition Museum) and Jim Corbett National Tiger Reserve in Northern India.

Suffering is part of the human condition. Every individual and society experience loss, crises, and trauma at some point. Due to several variables, there is an entire spectrum of outcomes from those who struggle to reconcile and integrate their trauma, and others are able to move through post traumatic growth. India has experienced deep and repetitive trauma over the last millennium while striving to maintain the integrity of its multitude of philosophies and cultures. What is the secret of its survival and continuing spiritual growth against all the currents of time and history? And in what ways have those been compromised, or evolved? What are the lasting marks of those generational traumas on individuals, families, and cultures? And for our inquiry, what lessons does it hold as we navigate our own crises and traumas? We will explore these questions with the help of the spirit of India, its archetypes, traditions, stories and rituals.

Explore India and its timeless spirit with the unique Jungian lens of Analytical psychology under the guidance of the quaternity of Ashok Bedi, M.D., Jungian analyst, Ami Bedi LPC NCC, trauma specialist and psychotherapist, Usha Bedi retired chef of Dancing Ganesha, cultural consultant and culinary expert about everything Indian, and Regine Oesch-Aiyer, head navigator and Indophile with her unique blend of her Swiss precision amid the perpetual Indian chaos.

The Jungian Faculty for this journey is Ashok Bedi, M.D., a Jungian psychoanalyst and a board-certified psychiatrist. A Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association, he is a Clinical Professor in Psychiatry at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee and a training analyst at the Carl G. Jung Institute of Chicago. He is the liaison for the IAAP for developing Jungian training programs in India. He leads the annual “Jungian Encounter with the Soul of India” study group to several centers in India under the auspices of the New York Jung Foundation. His publications and upcoming programs may be previewed at www.pathtothesoul.com

Ami Bedi, LPC, NCC of Akhilanda Consulting is a Milwaukee-based psychotherapist with a specialization in trauma therapy. Over the past 15 years, she has focused on and elevated wellness and emotional self-awareness as forms of liberation and decolonization within the non-profit and private sector. As our culture has been facing the deep rooted impacts of systemic oppression and the long-term impacts of colonialism, Ami has helped people reconnect to collective wisdom as a cornerstone to healing and transformation, for individuals, families, communities, and culture.

February 25, 2024 Delhi

Delhi one of the world's oldest cities, inhabited continuously as far back as 2 BC. It has been the capital of dozens of empires, the royal playground for hundreds of kings, the site of furious battles and devastation, and the centre always of intrigues and power struggles that sought to control the rest of the country. The British legacy of Lutyen's Delhi formally divides the city into Old and New Delhi, each beautiful in its own way. We take a colonial walk of New Delhi, a city that largely owes its present-day avatar to a man named Edwin Lutyens, a man best known for adapting traditional architecture to contemporary styles.

We drive to Gandhi Smriti a man best known for his non-violent struggle against colonialism. The last 144 days of Mahatma Gandhi's life were spent at Gandhi Smriti. Late afternoon we navigate through the lanes of Old Delhi partly on foot and partly on cycle rickshaw, We visit Haveli Dharampura, a charming mansion for an experiential evening to witness a Kathak performance, a traditional Indian dance form followed by a Mughlai dinner.

February 26 2024 Delhi - Dharamshala

Dharamshala is nestled in a valley of dense pine and deodar forests with a horizon dominated by the snow capped peaks. For years it has offered refuge to the Tibetans through their tumultuous history with China and served as the headquarters for His Holiness the Dalai Lama. The town perched precariously on the mountainside, set against a backdrop of fluttering Tibetan flags makes Dharamshala a picturesque retreat.

After breakfast we drive to the airport for our flight to Dharamsala.

The Hyatt Regency Dharamshala Resort - a hideaway in the forested neighborhood of McLeodganj with beautiful views of the snow-capped Dhauladhar mountain range.

Hyatt Regency Dharamshala Resort

We meet in the afternoon for our introductory lecture with Dr. Bedi.

February 27, 2024 Dharmashala

After breakfast we explore McLeod Ganj, known as 'little Lhasa', which is home to numerous schools, monasteries and Buddhist temples. Visit to the Namgyal Monastery, also known as Dalai Lama's temple, as well as the Tibetan Parliament in Exile .

Late afternoon we meet for a lecture before dinner at our hotel.

February 28, 2024 Dharmshala - Palampur - Dharmshala

After breakfast we stop at a meditation center on the way to Palampur to visit the WAH tea estate and factory. We enjoy a sumptuous lunch in the café

On the way back to Dharamsala we stop at Dongyu Gatsal Ling Nunnery where more than 100 practicing nuns live from the Himalayan region.

February 29, 2024 Dharamshala - Amritsar

We depart for Amritsar, and on way visit the Norbulingka Institute, a major center for Buddhist teaching and practical work. Named after the summer residence of the Seventh Dalai Lama, it was set up to ensure the survival of the Tibetan Buddhism cultural heritage. After lunch at the café at the institute, we drive to Amritsar where we check into Taj Swarna, the Taj Swarna.

Amritsar is the spiritual center for the Sikh faith, the Golden Temple, the infamous Jallianwala Bagh massacre, is a grim chronicle of the British rule.

March 1, 2024 Amritsar

This morning we visit the Partition Museum where the story of the greatest migration in human history is recounted. It pieces together a bitter history, yet through its stories of bravery and solidarity offers a glimmer of hope. Continue on to Jallianwala Bagh, where a brutal massacre was carried out and countless innocents perished.

Return to our hotel for lunch on our own. Mid afternoon lecture.

After an early dinner, we visit the Golden

Temple to witness the Night ceremony.

March 2, 2024 Amritsar

Amritsar's key draw is the Golden Temple or the Sri Harmandir Sahib – the central religious place for the Sikh faith. The temple was virtually destroyed by an Afghan invader in 1761 and later rebuilt by Maharaja Ranjit Singh, ruler of Punjab who covered the dome in gold. We visit the free kitchen where all visitors are fed a simple meal. Run by volunteers this kitchen feeds about 10000 people a day.

We meet for a lecture before driving to Wagah Border also known as the Berlin Wall of South Asia, It is the only road crossing between India and Pakistan.

Each evening as the buglers sounds the last post, two splendidly uniformed guards on either side of the border lower their respective national flags. The ceremony attracts crowds of spectators on both sides and is a poignant reminder of the Partition of 1947.
